Diana also holds a Master's Degree in Holistic Health Education and Counseling from JFK University with an emphasis in Movement Psychology and she is a certified Five Rings Relationship Coach. Through her passion and commitment to healthy marriage, she had created two different workshops which she offers entitled: Togetherness in your Marriage and Rekindle Your Romance. She also offers a private Marriage Prep Class for couples. Her orientation is holistic and spiritual, offering people the opportunity to achieve deeper levels of self-awareness.

Diana meets with you (at no charge) to discuss your wedding. (The meeting is done over the phone if you are unable to meet in person because you are not living in the area. Then when you are in the area she would meet with you in person.)

The initial meeting is to get to know each other, share ideas about your wedding, and take a look at the ceremony ideas Diana has from her years of collecting and creating new ideas. She also has a list of questions for you to explore thoughts and ideas regarding your ceremony. Having performed ceremonies for over 20 years, she has lots of resources for ceremonies, readings, vows and blessings. The process of co-creating your ceremony will include at least 2 more meetings, as well as phone and email communication. Because the wedding really begins with the rehearsal, Diana also coordinates and leads your rehearsal. If you have a wedding coordinator, Diana will work with your coordinator regarding all aspects of your ceremony.

Diana's orientation is spiritual, not pertaining to any one particular religion however she is happy to incorporate religious rituals that are meaningful to you. The ceremony is personal to you, reflecting your thoughts and feelings about marriage, your relationship and the things that are important to you, including your community of family and friends. She offers you the opportunity to personalize, as much as you wish, the vows, readings, and other aspects of the ceremony. Diana's presentation style is comfortable, sacred and joyous. She creates an experience and everyone feels included. Together, with Diana, you will co-create your memorable ceremony that sets the tone for your whole wedding day to be a sacred and joyous celebration of the joining of two hearts!
