

Creative Occasions

Wedding and Special Event Planning

About Marie Rios...

A business degree in marketing from San Francisco State University, several years as a Project Accountant in a real estate development company managing multiple budget and payroll accounts, invaluable experience as an Event Planner in a law firm and Recognition and Incentive Program Planner for Shaklee Corporation gave Marie Rios the background, training and incentive to start her own Wedding Consulting business in 1995. She has integrated into her business philosophy a high level of organization, attention to detail, integrity, personal care and interest in her clients and is at ease in arranging and planning small dinner parties to large and elaborate formal weddings. Her events have been featured in well-known wedding publications.

Her goal is to make the planning process of the wedding less stressful and relaxing for the bridal couple and their families. It is important to Marie that everyone has fun along the way and she is committed to making the wedding day run smoothly. Marie invites you to:

"Be a Guest at Your Own Wedding!"