

Who we are...

Let Our Expertise Work For You

With over a decade of experience filming and photographing weddings, you can rest assured that you will get a masterpiece that captures the magic of your wedding day.

From the videographer to the editors and technical staff, the Belle team is committed to producing high-quality wedding video and photography.

Our philosophy about weddings is this: simply put, it's your day, not ours. It's our job to capture the beauty of your celebration without interfering. To be a helpful presence - to treat your wedding as something that's unique as you are.

Working as a team, we will be there to help you through the day. All of our staff are very experienced and professional and are willing to assist you in any way they can.
